The guitar and ukulele assembly was very well represented this morning with parents, grandparents and other family members. It was amazing to see the progress made by all the children, they really loved performing to you all, so thank you for your support.

Plugs for Parents...

Mother's Day Fair. SAFFA are asking for donations for the Mother's Day Fair. If anyone has any gifts that might make a nice gift for a mum, or loved one, then please could you pop them in to the School Office, thank you.

The Shwop Shop. Inspired by last week's Picture News about 'Fast Fashion' and in connection with their Recycling topic Year 3/4 are setting up a Shwop Shop. They're asking for everyone to bring in one or two unwanted item of clothing to pass on to Oxfam to be resold, reused or recycled, allowing Oxfam to fund all sorts of vital projects around the world. The Book People Fair Week. During this week there will be a book stall in the School Hall provided by The Book People. There is the opportunity every morning from 8:30am to pop in with your child(ren) to browse and purchase the books. Alternatively, please send your child to school on Monday with some money in a named envelope (£5 maximum) and we will make sure that they get an opportunity to purchase a book of their choice.

Trip Consent Forms. Consent forms have been handed out for all of the above trips now. Please hand in your completed consent forms, along with payment, where necessary, to the School Office.

Head Lice. Just a quick reminder to check your child(ren)'s hair this weekend and treat where necessary. We really want get on top of these Head lice!

News...

Sheffield Hatters have been successful in receiving funding from Children In Need to put on holiday activity camps for children at Goals Sports Centre each holiday for the next 3 years. The aim of the activity camps will be to provide children that are in need with stimulating and engaging activities from multi sports, basketball coaching, fun games, healthy snacks and more! The activity camps will help build the confidence of children and young people and teach them life skills whilst making friends and having a fantastic holiday! The registration form will be sent out with this newsletter via email.
